

NYCHA Resident Jobs Programs and Training

Program Name	Program Description	Program Details
Jobs-Plus at BronxWorks	Jobs-Plus is an employment program that was created to work with all working-age residents in designated public housing developments or a cluster of developments. The goal of the Jobs-Plus program is to raise the levels of employment and earnings among New York City public housing communities. Services are limited only to residents who live in a Jobs-Plus designated development.	Employment-Related Services <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Client Enrollment, Assessment, Orientation. • Job readiness, job search assistance and training. • Job development, placement and retention/advancement support. • Referrals for social supports. Financial Incentives that “Make Work Pay” <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Increasing awareness and take up of EID. • Ensuring residents take advantages of work supports such as • Child support services such as ... • Financial counseling services. Community Support for Work <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The strengthening of social ties among residents and community stakeholders to support residents’ job preparation and work efforts.
Jobs-Plus at Jefferson Houses	Jobs-Plus is an employment program that was created to work with all working-age residents in designated public housing	Employment-Related Services <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Client Enrollment, Assessment, Orientation.

NYCHA Resident Jobs Programs and Training

Eligibility	Locations	Contact
	Jobs-Plus at BronxWorks Serving residents of Betances, Moore Houses and East 152nd Street-Courtlandt Houses the South Bronx. Operated by BronxWorks. Funded by the NYC Center for Economic Opportunity.	(718) 289-8100
	Jefferson Houses Jobs-Plus Serving residents of Jefferson Houses in East Harlem.	(718) 289-8100

NYCHA Resident Jobs Programs and Training

developments or a cluster of developments. The goal of the Jobs-Plus program is to raise the levels of employment and earnings among New York City public housing communities. Services are limited only to residents who live in a Jobs-Plus designated development.

- Job readiness, job search assistance and training.
- Job development, placement and retention/advancement support.
- Referrals for social supports.

Financial Incentives that “Make Work Pay”

- Increasing awareness and take up of EID.
- Ensuring residents take advantages of work supports such as ...
- Child support services such as ...
- Financial counseling services.

Community Support for Work

- The strengthening of social ties among residents and community stakeholders to support residents’ job preparation and work efforts.

NYCHA RESIDENT TRAINING ACADEMY (NRTA) - Janitorial

The NYCHA Resident Training Academy (NRTA) provides employment-linked training opportunities and job placement assistance to NYCHA residents in the construction, pest control, maintenance, and janitorial fields. The NRTA works with successful graduates of the Academy to provide job placement assistance by

NYCHA Resident Jobs Programs and Training

Operated by Hostos Community College.
Funded by the Department of Human Resources Administration.

Minimum Requirements for Caretaker

(718) 289-8100

(Janitorial) Training

- NYCHA resident on the lease
- 18 years of age or older
- Ability to score a 6.0 reading and math level on the Test of Adult Basic Education (T.A.B.E.)
- Ability to pass a drug test

NYCHA Resident Jobs Programs and Training

focusing on jobs with career paths. Past NRTA graduates have obtained jobs at NYCHA in positions such as Caretakers and Pest Control Technicians, and with NYCHA contractors and affordable housing developers in the various construction trades.

NYCHA RESIDENT TRAINING ACADEMY (NRTA) - Construction

The NYCHA Resident Training Academy (NRTA) provides employment-linked training opportunities and job placement assistance to NYCHA residents in the construction, pest control, maintenance, and janitorial fields. The NRTA works with successful graduates of the Academy to provide job placement assistance by focusing on jobs with career paths. Past NRTA graduates have obtained jobs at NYCHA in positions such as Caretakers and Pest Control Technicians, and with NYCHA contractors and affordable housing developers in the various construction trades.

REES Information Sessions

NYCHA's Office of Resident Economic Empowerment & Sustainability (REES) develops and implements programs, policies and collaborations to measurably support residents' increased economic

General REES Information Sessions are held twice a week on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 8:30 a.m.

You will be greeted by REES staff and

NYCHA Resident Jobs Programs and Training

- Ability to perform eight (8) hours of physical work each day

Minimum Requirements for Construction Training

(718) 289-8100

- NYCHA resident on the lease
- 18 years of age or older
- High school diploma or GED
- Ability to score a 7.0 reading and math level on the T.A.B.E.
- Ability to pass a drug test
- Ability to lift 50 lbs or more
- Ability to perform eight (8) hours of physical work each day

To receive services, you must be an authorized NYCHA resident.

787 Atlantic Ave., 2nd Fl., Brooklyn, NY 11238

(718) 289-8100

Documents Needed for Your Appointment:

Valid photo ID (examples include: a DMV

NYCHA Resident Jobs Programs and Training

opportunities with a focus on employment and advancement, financial literacy and asset building, adult education and training, and business development.

asked to attend a short presentation where you will receive an overview of all of REES' available services, which include referrals for employment, training, GED and ESOL classes available through a NYCHA Community Center, financial counseling, and appointments to attend the Test of Adult Basic Education (T.A.B.E.), which is the first step in the application process for the NYCHA Resident Training Academy (NRTA).

NYCHA Resident Jobs Programs and Training

issued ID)

